The Chinese exclusion act has proved an advantage to the country, and its continuance and strict enforcement, as well as its extension to other similar races, are imperatively necessary. The Asiatic is so essentially different from the American that he cannot be assimilated with our population and is therefore not desirable as a permanent citizen.—From Bryan's Letter of Acceptance.

There is a great deal of distinguished silence in this campaign.

MAYBE killing those who cry for liberty makes a christian nation, but thinking people do not see it that way.

In its efforts to elect McKinley the steel trust is making several kinds of a donkey of the man who said there were no trusts.

MARK HANNA, who said there were no trusts, was able to find J. Pierpont Morgan's address when he wanted the coal strike called off.

The idea of little Jimmie Eckles talking to workmen is amusing. If little Jimmie has a heart throb in sympathy with anybody but a bondholder it has never been discovered.

Not a single trust in the whole United States wants Mr. Bryan elected. And this fact is greatly to his credit. It ought to secure him the votes of all citizens opposed to the trusts.

MR. BRYAN now stands for the right, the just and the conservative policy, and Mr. McKinley for the policy that is wrong, unjust, unconstitutional, revolutionary and dangerous.—New York World.

The workman who can be influenced to vote for McKinley by threats of starvation may be driven to the polls in 1904 at the point of the bayonet to vote for Hanna. It would be the logical conclusion of present methods.

SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DREW says: "Bryan is honest and has the courage of his convictions." Is not that the sort of man the people want in the White House? The present incumbent may have convictions of his own, but his acts are controlled by the trusts.

BOURKE COCHRAN, in reply to an inquiry with regard to his opposition to Bryan four years ago, in a recent speech at Aurora, said: "It is true that I was opposed to him at that time. I may have differed with the pilot of the ship as to the course he would have pursued four years ago. I may differ from him on some questions which may arise in the future. But I am agreed with him today in his endeavor to prevent the scuttling of the ship of state."

The fact that a lot of boys,

Back-Ache?

If you have Backache you have Kidney Disease. If you neglect Backache it will develop into something worse—Bright's Disease or Diabetes. There is no use rubbing and doctoring your back. Cure the kidneys. There is only one kidney medicine but it cures Backache every time—women and men attacked Roosevelt with insulting epithets and then ran after his carriage jeering and shouting at him in a disrespectful manner as he was leaving church in Chicago yesterday. will no doubt be worked for all it is worth by the republican national committee. No one, however, who respects the rights or opinions of others, to say nothing for good order, will uphold such an exhibition, although it may serve to show the extent to which some classes of people are opposed to the republican vice presidential nominee.

The Old-Time Republican.
United States Senator Wellington, of Maryland, a few days ago explained to the people of Lincoln, Neb., why he is for the candidate of the Kansas City convention. "I am not a democrat," he said. "I differ from Mr. Bryan on two great questions. But there is one more, greater than these, which alone is enough to bind me to your nominee. That is imperialism. But I have for 20 years been a republican in a state where it takes something more than putty in your back to be a republican. And I am a republican still, an anti-imperialist republican, an Abraham Lincoln republican, and I would rather be that than a republican of the type of McKinley or Hanna or Roosevelt."

Lincoln on Love of Liberty.
In his speech at Watertown, Wis., last week, Mr. Bryan took up the charge that he was the chief cause of the prolongation of the war in the Philippines, and in meeting it quoted Lincoln on love and liberty in a way that must put every republican who reveres the memory of Lincoln to blush.

"When my opponents make this charge they pay me a compliment. 'The Filipinos knew of the declaration of independence before they knew there was a man in this country bearing my name. Instead of me being the cause, it was a higher power than a democratic candidate that placed in their hearts the love of liberty.'"

"I tell you it was Abraham Lincoln who said it was God Himself that placed in every human heart the love of liberty and the republican party cannot tear that love of liberty from any human heart."

"The republican party says that we are going to give the Filipinos a right to participate in their government. We give them the right? It is not a man-given thing. God Himself joined together in every human being love of liberty and what God has joined together let not the republican party tear asunder."

Abschuler is the Man for Governor.
No man in the state of Illinois has a better record for faithfulness to duty and honesty of act and purpose than has Samuel Abschuler, the democratic candidate for governor. During his two terms in the general assembly of the state, he studied every question with an eye single to the public interests and added with genuine regard to the welfare of the people. But not only does he stand before the public without a flaw as to honesty of purpose and faithfulness to duty, he is also a man of great ability and strong character. His was one of the masterful minds on the judiciary committee, and on the floor his influence was second to that of no other member. His opinions were always listened to and ever carried great weight. He is fair and open in his methods and his known integrity and ability gave him great power with his fellow members, and secured him hosts of friends among republicans as well as democrats.

So generally is the ability and integrity of Mr. Abschuler recognized that even partisan republicans praise him. A short time before the democratic convention that nominated him, his candidacy was being discussed by a group of men, among them Judge Cochran, the well known republican of Sullivan, Moultrie county, who said:

"If I should ever become the governor of Illinois I should appoint Samuel Abschuler, democrat, that he is, to the most responsible position within my gift. I served with him in the legislature and I know him to be a true man."

This is the kind of a man for the people of Illinois to intrust their affairs to. He will not disappoint them, nor in any way neglect their interests.

Although Mr. Abschuler speaks German fluently, in all things he is an American. Well informed in public affairs, he would know what to do and how to do it in order to accomplish that which would redound to the advantage of the state and its citizens. While a Jeffersonian democrat, he is liberal and broad-minded in his views, and is personally popular where he is best known, always running far ahead of his ticket in his home city and county.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

"Old Arkansaw," with a strong cast and elegant scenery, was played at Harper's theatre last night before a good sized audience.

"Speaking about shows and plays," remarked a commercial traveler to his companions in a smoking car, "I saw 'The Star Boarder' last night and it made me laugh all the evening. It is the funniest farce comedy ever invented. I should call it an easy ten to one winner. I don't know what it was all about, nor I didn't care. I was looking for amusement and got all that was coming to me in one evening and my money's worth." "Any pretty girls in the show?" asked one of the boys. "Plenty of them. They are petite blondes and brunettes, who sing, dance and make fun while on the stage. While they form a magnetic feature they are not the 'whole show.' There's something doing for other members of the company. The various specialties, 'gags' and songs are all original and up to the times. The performance creates continuous laughter, and I think that demonstrates that it is what playgoers want, as well as proves that the farce is a big hit. Go and see it the first chance you get and have a good time with yourself." "The Star Boarder" will be at Harper's theatre tomorrow night. Those who saw the performance at the Burtis in Davenport last night pronounce it one of the finest farces on the road.

George H. Broadhurst's latest candidate for laughing honors, "The House That Jack Built," received its premier production at Youngstown, Ohio, last Wednesday night. It is distinctly in line with the same author's previous comedies which have proven as successful on the other side of the water as here in America. The play does not deal in any way with the familiar nursery rhyme, but takes its title from the fact that the action takes place in a new house which is being built by a wealthy but eccentric doctor whose name is "Jack." The cast numbers some of the best known artists in America, and Mr. Broadhurst declares it to be the very best company which has yet been seen in one of his plays. It includes Thomas A. Wise, Mrs. Annie Yeomans, Alfred Klein, Charles Cherry, Fred W. Peters, Herbert Ayling, Harrison Armstrong, Roy Fairchild, Alexis Law Gislis, Albert Amberg, J. N. Hinton, Brandon Douglas, Anita Bridger, Grace Dudley and Jennie Yeomans. "The House That Jack Built" comes to the Burtis next Thursday.

Notice to Contractors.
Bids will be received at the city clerk's office, in the city of Rock Island, for the excavation, curbing and paving of Twenty-second street in the said city, from Tenth (10th) avenue to the north line of Eighteenth (18th) avenue, as a whole. Said bids will be opened on Monday, Oct. 8 and each bid must be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the president of the board of local improvements and certified by a responsible bank in the sum of two thousand ($2,000) dollars. The specifications for the said improvement are to be found in the office of the city clerk of Rock Island and the contractor making said improvement is to be paid therefor in bonds, which said bonds shall draw interest at the rate of four (4) per cent per annum.
Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 26, 1900.

President Board of Local Improvement.

Robbed the Grave
A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Hartz & Ulmeyer's drug store.

For Over Fifty Years
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle.

It is exasperating to one who has used Foley's Honey and Tar and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good." There is nothing "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, lagrippe, etc. For sale by all druggists.
